

NEW AMERICANS

in long-term care

OCCUPATIONAL ENGLISH TRAINING

Offered through workforce connections in partnership with EnGen

What we offer:

- Occupational English Training designed for long-term care roles
- Practice real-world communication used in healthcare settings
- Learn terminology for CNA, dietary aide, and medication aide positions
- Flexible, online learning platform
- 100% free for eligible participants

Who It's For:

- Employees currently working in long-term care
- New Americans seeking career advancement in healthcare
- Employers looking to upskill and retain talent
- Individuals preparing for CNA or other frontline roles

Why It Matters:

- Boosts communication and reduces errors on the job
- Strengthens teamwork and care delivery
- Increases employee confidence and retention
- Enhances patient satisfaction through better interactions

Proven Results from EnGen Learners:

- 93% improved confidence using English
- 89% improved their job skills along with language skills
- 80% achieved a raise or promotion
- 83% said they're more likely to stay with their employer
- 89% would recommend the program to a coworker

Care Providers
of Minnesota

Find out more here:

This innovative program connects motivated individuals with rewarding careers while helping long-term care facilities build stronger, more diverse teams.

LET'S TALK ABOUT YOUR FUTURE!

Find out more here

Reach out today to start your journey:

Asha Ali
Community Outreach Workforce Navigator

✉ aali@careproviders.org ☎ (612)-542-7726

Empowering individuals to thrive in long-term care careers!

Start your career search here:

caringcareersstarthere.com

Caring Careers
Start Here

